BACKGROUND

The State of Texas is in the process of making nonsubstantive revisions to and recodifying its statutes.

PURPOSE

As enrolled, H.B. 752 recodifies and makes nonsubstantive revisions in those statutes relating to labor and employment, including conforming amendments, repealers, and penalties.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

It is the committee's opinion that this bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to any state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Makes a nonsubstantive revision of the statutes relating to labor and employment and codifies existing law as the Labor Code.

SECTION 2. Conforms Title 4E, Government Code, by adding Chapter 461, relating to the Commission on Human Rights.

SECTION 3. Conforms Title 2G, Health and Safety Code, by adding Chapter 146, relating to migrant labor housing facilities.

SECTION 4. Conforms Title 5C, Local Government Code, by adding Chapter 174, relating to fire and police employee relations.

SECTION 5. Repealer: repeals various statutes which are codified in this bill.

SECTION 6. Provides that it is the intent of the legislature that this Act is a nonsubstantive recodification only.

SECTION 7. Provides that a code provision adopted by this Act that conflicts with an applicable provision of Article 6252-31, V.T.C.S., as adopted by the 72nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1991, does not prevail over that article unless the law from which the code provision was derived would prevail over that article.

SECTION 8. Effective date: September 1, 1993.

SECTION 9. Emergency clause.
